

Call for Research Proposals

Roger S. Williams Research Grants are awarded to support basic and clinical research that will improve, either directly or indirectly, the rehabilitation of individuals who have suffered brain damage as a result of a stroke or traumatic brain injury. Of particular interest are projects that will lead to successful applications for external support. The Roger S. Williams Research Grant will provide funds for project expenses up to $15,000.

Applicants should prepare a proposal that includes:

- I. Cover Page with Abstract and Signatures
- II. Detailed Plan of Project
- III. Budget
- IV. Biographical Sketch/Curriculum Vitae

Please see official guidelines for Roger S. Williams Research Grants (also attached) for details.

The Trustees will evaluate all proposals for possible funding. Electronic submissions are encouraged.

Submit proposals by 5 p.m., Monday, November 30th to:

Roger S. Williams Trustees, c/o Nicole Whyte
514 Lewis Hall, University of Missouri-Columbia
